LEEJA'S HOUSING CORNER

featuring Chloe Yuhwa's Starfall Cafè on Ragnarok

gposers

LEEJA LLEN: Hello and welcome fellow housing enthusiasts to another edition of Leeja's Housing Corner! I hope you all are ready for some fun, because I have a little something different planned this month. Today I'm sitting down with Chloe Yuhwa of Ragnarok, owner of Starfall Cafè. Chloe, thank you for taking the time out of your day. Care to tell the readers a bit about yourself before we continue?

CHLOÉ: Hello and thanksies for having me! So telling thingies about myself is always difficults but am Chloe, am the owner of Starfall Café and when am not taking care of the venue I enjoy doing a lots of raiding or even just screenshots, and I've been playing the game since Heavensward!

LEEJA: I always find it difficult to talk about myself as well chuckles. So Chloe, you have quite the establishment here—thank you for allowing me to showcase it this month! How long has Starfall Cafè been in business?

CHLOÉ: Hmm the cafè has been in business for arounds a year and a half now, and hopes is gonna be open for many many more times! We originally hads the idea with a friend when all the places opened at the time were nightclubs. We wanted somethingie cozy where everyones would feel welcomed but we never expected it woulds last more than a month!

LEEJA: There are plenty of nightclubs around, that's true! I definitely prefer the cozier atmosphere that a café tends to offer and Starfall Café does not disappoint! From the minute I walked in, I knew this place was something special.

Tell me—who handled your décor?

CHLOÉ: The decoration has been taken cares of by a very dear friend named Kehda Seth who's actuallies one of your readers! He did all the concepts and general ideas. Sometimes some members of the management team—likes Rune Lumin—also been adding some details to it. I guess it's been a collaborative works but Kehda's is doing most of everythingie for it!

LEEJA: Well you'll have to extend my appreciation for his work when you speak with him next—the interior is absolutely stunning! Did he decorate the yard as well?

CHLOÉ: Yes the yard decorating is all him! The housie plot mades it a little difficult for decorating 'cause is a little awkwardly placed but I thinkie in the end he dids a good job with it. While we dids a lots of lil touch ups to the inside, the yard never changed cuz we're very happies with it!

gposers

LEEJA: nods Mansions do tend to have awkward layouts, but I think he handled it quite well!

So Starfall Café is open every Thursday and Sunday, 8-11pm Server Time. Do you tend to get a good amount of business during those hours? What made you choose those times, specifically?

CHLOÉ: Yes, the café can gets lots busy on both days though is depending lots on patch and stuff, and sometimes when new content is released. I guess people enjoy it but they always come back eventually! About the opening times, is kinda going back to how with my friend we opened this when there were only nightclubs around so we thoughts if we wanted peoples to visits us it woulds be better to opens right before the usual club time and close when they opens. So was originally two hours on Sundays only, but turns out more and more customers visiteds and wanteds to stay longers than the original two hours. So we decideds to opens longer, and soons after we decideds to open a second day in the week after popular demand!

LEEJA: Ahh that's a pretty smart business practice, if you ask me!

Speaking of business practices—you have a lovely menu, with some delicious offerings but I noticed that there aren't any prices listed. Do you not accept Gil for your food and drink?

CHLOÉ: Since we wants this to be place for everyones we thoughts it was only rights for the food and drinks to be free, so customers can enjoys as many as they likes! But if they're free to gives any tips likes to the staff members who takes care of them, but is optional!

LEEJA: What a lovely sentiment! That makes Starfall Café all the more inviting for veteran and new players alike.

Earlier in my visit, I was able to speak with a few of your staff and they are just lovely. You can tell they enjoy working here and take pride in delivering a memorable experience for their patrons. Do you tend to entertain more patrons who role-play versus not?

CHLOÉ: Hmm we tries our best to entertains everyones, our staff usuallies tries to adapt to the customers, we'll gives the same efforts to gives them an enjoyable time no matter if they never ever roleplayed before and just discovering the venue world, or if they're a very experienced roleplayer who wants an immersive experience!

When we opened, the non-roleplaying patrons mades most of our guests but as times went on I thinkie we're now at an even split and sees all kinds of players.

LEEJA: I see! It's wonderful that your venue attracts people from diverse playstyles—it must make for an interesting experience for staff and patrons alike.

Let's dive a little deeper into what it takes to run a venue like Starfall Café—what are some of the more difficult things that happen behind the scenes that visitors and patrons might not be aware of?

CHLOÉ: Hmmm I thinkie the most difficult gotta be when staff is taking cares of lots of customers at once! Sometimes a lots of guests will visits at the same time and can becomes a little difficults for the staff to still gives a good experience to everyones and takes care of the new guests! Is probablies the most stressful moments for them!

LEEJA: Ah that makes complete sense! I would imagine that on a night like tonight it could potentially be stressful for the staff involved. You definitely have a great turn-out though, and seem to provide a lot of entertainment for your patrons.

Tell me, do you have a favorite memory you've made since opening Starfall Café?

CHLOÉ: Favorite memory...is a difficults one to picks! A lots really happens and a lots often happens here but if I hads to pick I woulds says the evening where we participateds in The Rejoining event organized by ENE earlier this year, we gots to shows our work to a lots of peoples that never heards about us before. It was our longest shift for over six hours but all the staff really hads fun, and we gots to sees a lots of our friends visiting us that would has never looked muchie into café and stuff otherwise. We even gots showcased on both Preach and Zepla streams which mades a lots of us prouds!

I thinkie all the staff members gots very fond memories of this event.

gposers

LEEJA: Wow, that all sounds amazing! To be featured on two prominent streams as well—you and your staff must have been so thrilled and proud. I'm sad to have missed it, but I hope to bring even more attention to this wonderful establishment!

I just have a few more questions for you, and then I'll let you get back to doing what you do best! What is your absolute favorite thing about owning and running a venue like this?

CHLOÉ: Easiest question of the interview! My absolute favorite thingie about owning and running Starfall is making and seeing peoples happies, to sees them making memories and friends even find love sometimes! Hearing all the positives experiences from guests and staff members is what motivates me to always tries my best to improves Starfall.

I hopes with your article, more peoples will joins to makes their own happy memories here! Or even just to comes relax and enjoys a cozy moment!

gposers

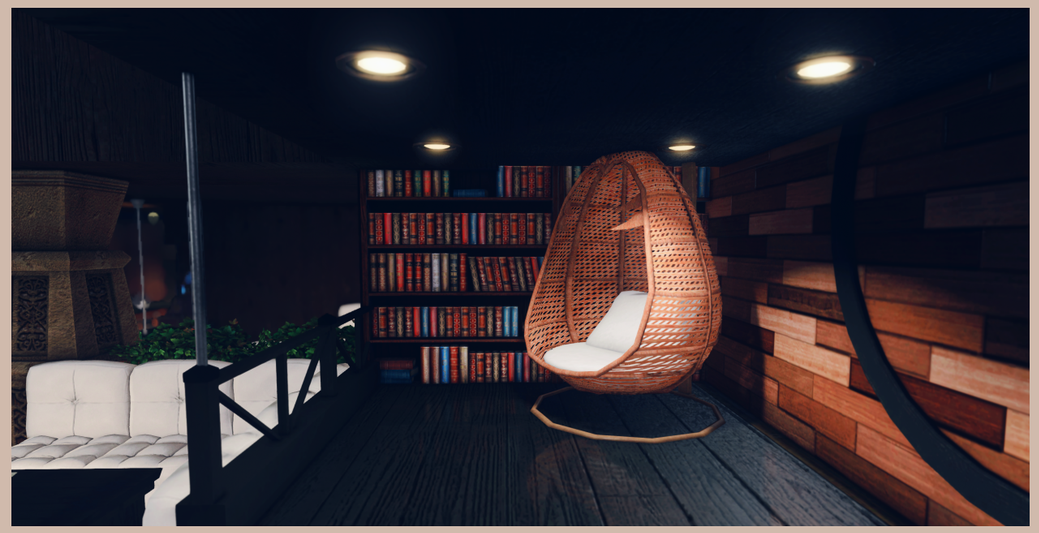
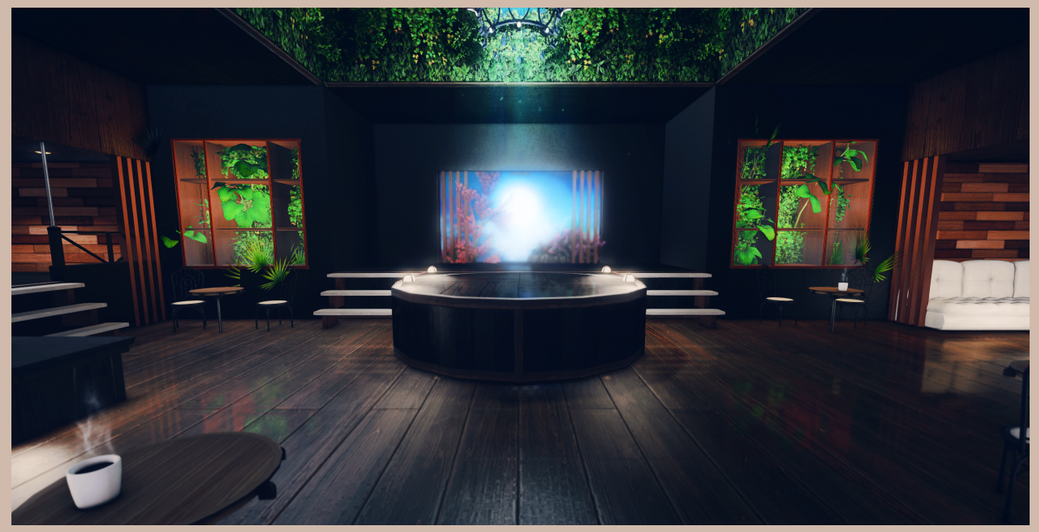
LEEJA: You sound like you're truly living your dream! That energy must spill over into your work at the café and motivate you and your staff to do your best.

Alrighty, here's my final request for you, Chloé! I want you to tell the readers why they should visit Starfall Café. What makes your café special and a cut above the rest?

CHLOÉ: I woulds says they will find out when they comes sees it for themselves! Is a cozy place with talented bards always playing for us, and our staff gonna do their bestest to takes care of them and makes them feels welcomes no matters the kind of players they are! And is also what I thinkie makes our café special, is all the staff members, from service, bards, to decorator and management always workings their bestest to gives our customers the best experience possible!





LEEJA: Well, I for one can certainly vouch that Starfall Café should definitely be added to your “to-visit” lists if you tend to frequent various venues!

Thanks so much, again, for taking the time out on such a busy evening to sit and chat with me, Chloé. I wish you and the rest of Starfall Café all the best in your future endeavors and I look forward to seeing more from you all in the future!

That’s all from me, folks! If you’d like to visit Starfall Café for yourself, you can find their location and more information on their website: starfall.crd.co. Until next time, housing enthusiasts!

HOW LONG HAVE YOU BEEN CREATING ART?

I've honestly been drawing for longer than I can remember! I did take a bit of a break from art for a few years to focus on my studies/career, but have recently returned and have rediscovered my love for art and am more determined than ever to improve.

WHAT DO YOU LOVE TO CREATE THE MOST?

It's a bit of a simplistic answer, but I enjoy drawing "cool" art of my favorite media/characters. The exact way I interpret that varies from piece to piece but I really enjoy trying to create a striking/dynamic piece. From a more technical standpoint I really enjoy sketching/inking and working with lighting and I really enjoy drawing hands!

WHAT MOTIVATES YOU TO DRAW?

My main motivation to draw and improve has honestly always been the internal conflict between my artistic vision and technical skill. I feel that I'm constantly working to draw and improve my art skills to try and catch up to my artistic eye/visualizations in my head. I'm honestly pretty convinced I'll never be able to catch up to be quite honest. I know it may sound negative but it's the bit of internal conflict for me that really drives me to continue drawing and improving!

I'm also always motivated by the wonderful community of artists and friends that I've been lucky enough to find myself a part of. Seeing those around me improving helps me stay motivated and pull myself out of slumps when I feel that I'm stagnating!

WHO/WHAT IS THE INSPIRATION BEHIND YOUR ART?

I don't really have any specific inspiration for my art, rather I'm continually being inspired by the art in the different games/media that I enjoy and art I come across online!

DO YOU ACCEPT COMMISSIONS?

Currently my commissions are closed but I do take batches every few months or so which I announce over on my Twitter.

WHO WILL YOU TAKE ON YOUR NEXT ADVENTURE?

YUKINKO SNOWFLAKE

Acquired : Hydatos Lockbox, Moisture-warped Lockbox

Obtained : Eureka Hydatos

Falling, falling, falling, falling, falling...falling on his head.

In my aimless wanderings—and possibly without a map—I happened upon a small, old, and dilapidated hostel among the snowy peaks in the Far East. I was welcomed and offered shelter from the blizzard in this one's humble abode. Furthermore, it offered me the most incredible hot coffee I'd ever tasted, a legendary brew and possibly a dream born of the stinging frostbite gripping me. Whether or not it was real, I do remember that I couldn't bring myself to look at what was concealed beneath the woven headdress my new little friend was donning.

It is the enemy that weighs on me—snow, rather than fire.

ALLAGAN MELON

Acquired : Gardening (Allagan Melon Seeds)

Capable of movement and tremendously juicy.

My backpack's contents were completely frozen, thank the Twelve, protecting my prized Allagan melon from spoiling. One does not go into the mountains without the necessary equipment, and this is a life-saving fruit. We shared a few slices of the quintessential winter snack after spending several hours by the fire while I entertained my new friend with exciting stories, because if anything goes well with a good hot coffee in the warmth of the hearth, it is this juicy delicacy.

And you say his muscles swelled to bursting, like firm melons ripening in the summer sun!?

MINI MOLE

Acquired : Thwack-a-Mole
Obtained : Limsa Lominsa Lower Decks

When not dining on a protein-rich diet of earthworms and grubs, he dreams of making mountains.

But, returning to that ecstatic coffee that had left me speechless, my silent friend guided me through the process. What can I say about those coffee beans, oh, they were so alive it was almost frightening. Robust and firm, with a warm toasty tone and an enticing aroma found only in nature. They nearly made me think of the tiny moles that swarm the fields of Vylbrand in the spring. Cheerful, bouncy and round...coffee beans usually jump, don't they?

Hear me, you mole bastards? I am steel!
- Eager Red Swallow

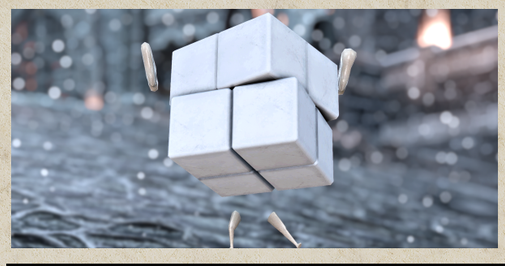
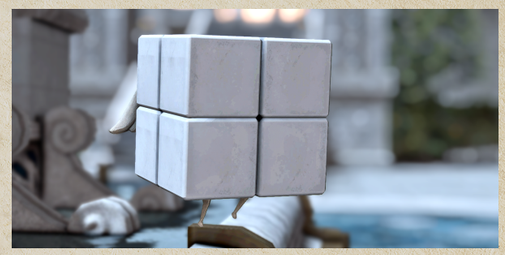
FORGIVEN HATE

Dungeon : Mt. Gulg





Having repented its sins, it poses no danger.

I always take my coffee with two sugar lumps. I like to think that the strong bitter flavor represents my daring adventurer side, and the sugar the natural sweetness with which I treat all the mountains. They'll realize one day and treat me similarly—y-yes, the sugar! I was shocked when the two tiny sugar lumps suddenly appeared from the pantry and flew into my coffee like birds in a fountain. It's interesting what you can learn from observation because I never paid attention to their ordinarily little wings.

I'm just going to assume that cube is an eater.

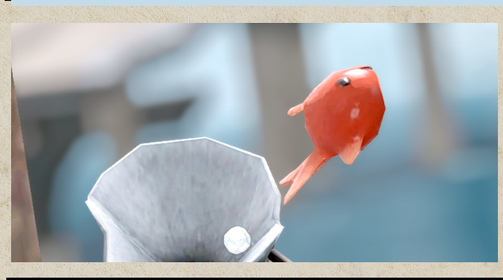
MAGIC BUCKET

Acquired : Fisher

Location : Coerthas, Coerthas Western Highlands (South Banepool).

Bait : Brute Leech



A fisherman's best friend. He sloshes instead of slobbers.

The crown jewel was a bucket that seemed to have no bottom. It could pour milk into your cup at the perfect temperature for hours on end. Such an idea, I must admit, frightened me briefly because it was the most bizarre thing I had seen in weeks. What kind of forbidden magic could have created such an artifact? One thing was to enjoy a cup of delicious, everyday coffee, but I must admit, that...made my hair stand on end. However, I am a coffee enthusiast, and I couldn't help but let it go because I needed more of that divine concoction.

Throw back a guppy today, and reel in ten fish tomorrow.

Witch drop

Coerthas Central Highlands
Coordinates: (27, 15)

Witchdrop is a gorge where those who were accused of heresy were cast into under Ishgardian Law. The belief was that if the accused were deemed innocent in Halone's eyes, then their souls would rest with Her. Conversely, if they were indeed guilty of heresy, then they should be able to prevent their deaths by spreading their dragon wings and flying to safety.

Novv's Nursery

Western La Noscea
Coordinates: (17, 21)

A Sahagan settlement where Clutchfather Novv watches over his children. Novv's sole desire is to raise his children in peace and avoid war with their fanatic brethren—The Coral Tridents.

the Pauper's Lode

The Lochs
Coordinates: (4, 27)

A massive cavern which glows with the promise of precious metals scattered throughout its many carved paths, however—upon closer inspection—the mineral responsible for the aforementioned glow was found to be worth very little. Thus, the cavern was named The Pauper's Lode, referencing an impoverished man's misfortune.
